

Certificates

We, the AMOR Gummiwaren GmbH, have been successful providers of medical products since 1968 and have since then obtained all the certificates required by the EC directives for condoms, medical protective sleeves, medical lubricants. This starts with is covering full range of design and development, production and sales, right up to as well as the complete quality assurance system for medical devices.

Of course we will gladly give you an insight to our official documents provide all our official document at your disposal.

